On the left, a sidebar has a 'Search' icon at the top, followed by links: 'Contact Me', 'Table of Contents', 'Introduction', 'What I'm NOT Saying; Dispensing With Straw Men', 'Section 1: Is Salvation for All Biblical?', 'Salvation for all people (Is it Biblical?)', and 'Logical Argument 1: Every Knee and Every Tongue'. The main content area on the right has a header 'Salvation for All People' and 'The Good News is For Everyone'. It includes an 'Introduction' section with text about the title being uncomfortable and accusations of unscripturality. Below this is a quote from Titus 2:11-15, and a concluding statement about God's grace.

The Good News is For Everyone

Introduction

Just reading the title above will make some people uncomfortable. Some even discourage or prohibit reading this argument, assuming it to be heretical. Others might argue that it is unbiblical and based on the wisdom of men instead of the Word of God. But are these accusations accurate?

In answer, I can say with confidence that the title of this work is not heretical. I know this to be the case because it comes from the Bible itself.

Titus 2:11-15

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, to everyone who calls on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
